

MISS VIRGINIA HASKINS TO WED ALANSON S. PAGE

Engagement Is Announced by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Jeffress, of "Argyll."

INFORMAL DANCE AT CLUB
Mr. and Mrs. Thaddeus C. Bell Entertain for Their Daughter, Miss Ruth Bell—Reception for Miss Gertrude Fanny Bowman.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Jeffress, of "Argyll," Chesterfield County, have announced the engagement of their niece, Miss Virginia Haskins, to Alanson S. Page, of Oswego, N. Y., son of David B. Page. The wedding will be celebrated some time in the coming spring.

Society Attends Comedy of Toys.

A brilliant audience filled the Academy of Music last evening to witness the initial performance of the "Comedy of Toys," produced by Mrs. W. E. Thurston and Mrs. V. C. Blankenship for the benefit of the foreign relief fund. It was one of the most attractive amateur affairs that has been given here in many years and numerous parties attended boxes for the event.

Miss Alice Morgan, daughter of the debutante daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wyndham R. Morello, entertained a party of friends for the charity play last evening, her guests going later to the Westmoreland Club for supper.

There will be several box parties given for the performance to-night, and the younger society set will be out in force to attend the matinee.

Informal Dance at the Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Thaddeus C. Bell, of "Argyll," Terre Haute, gave an informal dance last evening at the Country Club of Virginia for their daughter, Miss Ruth Bell. The clubhouse was attractively arranged with red flowers and Christmas greens, and the dining room where a buffet supper was served at 11 o'clock, was decorated in the same color scheme. There was no formal receiving line, and Mr. and Mrs. Bell and Miss Bell were assisted in doing the honors of the evening by Mrs. Bentley, Bird, of Norfolk.

To Address Catholic Woman's Club.

The beautiful appointed luncheon was given at the luncheon club Thursday by the Norfolk members of the Board of Medical Society in honor of the wives of the visiting doctors who were in Norfolk attending the annual meeting of the society. The table was arranged with red carnations and covers were laid for thirty-eight. Among those present were:

Mrs. L. T. Boyce, Mrs. Charles W. Douthat, Mrs. C. J. Edwards, Mrs. E. S. Taylor, Mrs. W. G. Evans, Mrs. G. H. Ford, Mrs. R. C. Gifford, Mrs. H. L. Collier, Mrs. H. H. Hunter, Mrs. W. R. Armistead, Mrs. Harrison, Mrs. Fenton Drewry, of Virginia; Mrs. Ridder of Suffolk; Mrs. J. M. Hagan Hodges of Richmond; Mrs. W. E. Driver, Mrs. E. A. Long, Mrs. C. Kellam, Mrs. Percy Doyle, Miss Allie Bowman, and others.

Reception for Miss Bowman.

The beautiful appointed luncheon was given at the luncheon club Thursday by the Norfolk members of the Board of Medical Society in honor of the wives of the visiting doctors who were in Norfolk attending the annual meeting of the society. The table was arranged with red carnations and covers were laid for thirty-eight. Among those present were:

Mrs. L. T. Boyce, Mrs. Charles W. Douthat, Mrs. C. J. Edwards, Mrs. E. S. Taylor, Mrs. W. G. Evans, Mrs. G. H. Ford, Mrs. R. C. Gifford, Mrs. H. L. Collier, Mrs. H. H. Hunter, Mrs. W. R. Armistead, Mrs. Harrison, Mrs. Fenton Drewry, of Virginia; Mrs. Ridder of Suffolk; Mrs. J. M. Hagan Hodges of Richmond; Mrs. W. E. Driver, Mrs. E. A. Long, Mrs. C. Kellam, Mrs. Percy Doyle, Miss Allie Bowman, and others.

Reception for Miss Bowman.

The beautiful appointed luncheon was given at the luncheon club Thursday by the Norfolk members of the Board of Medical Society in honor of the wives of the visiting doctors who were in Norfolk attending the annual meeting of the society. The table was arranged with red carnations and covers were laid for thirty-eight. Among those present were:

Mrs. L. T. Boyce, Mrs. Charles W. Douthat, Mrs. C. J. Edwards, Mrs. E. S. Taylor, Mrs. W. G. Evans, Mrs. G. H. Ford, Mrs. R. C. Gifford, Mrs. H. L. Collier, Mrs. H. H. Hunter, Mrs. W. R. Armistead, Mrs. Harrison, Mrs. Fenton Drewry, of Virginia; Mrs. Ridder of Suffolk; Mrs. J. M. Hagan Hodges of Richmond; Mrs. W. E. Driver, Mrs. E. A. Long, Mrs. C. Kellam, Mrs. Percy Doyle, Miss Allie Bowman, and others.

Reception for Miss Bowman.

The beautiful appointed luncheon was given at the luncheon club Thursday by the Norfolk members of the Board of Medical Society in honor of the wives of the visiting doctors who were in Norfolk attending the annual meeting of the society. The table was arranged with red carnations and covers were laid for thirty-eight. Among those present were:

Mrs. L. T. Boyce, Mrs. Charles W. Douthat, Mrs. C. J. Edwards, Mrs. E. S. Taylor, Mrs. W. G. Evans, Mrs. G. H. Ford, Mrs. R. C. Gifford, Mrs. H. L. Collier, Mrs. H. H. Hunter, Mrs. W. R. Armistead, Mrs. Harrison, Mrs. Fenton Drewry, of Virginia; Mrs. Ridder of Suffolk; Mrs. J. M. Hagan Hodges of Richmond; Mrs. W. E. Driver, Mrs. E. A. Long, Mrs. C. Kellam, Mrs. Percy Doyle, Miss Allie Bowman, and others.

Visiting Here.

Miss Rose Macdonald, president, and Mrs. Louis N. Duffy and Mrs. Taylor Dinkins, delegates of the Alexandra Equal Suffrage League, are in Richmond to attend the annual convention of the Equal Suffrage League of Virginia, which convenes here this week, and the Southern States Equal Suffrage League, which convenes to-day.

Engagement.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar J. Ballard, of Ivy, announce the approaching marriage of their daughter, Christine Ellen, to Ulysses Grant Ryalls, of Hinton, W. Va. The wedding will be celebrated very quietly, on January 5.

IN AND OUT OF TOWN.

Mrs. Alexander Wadsworth and her small daughter have returned from Norfolk, and will spend the winter months at 466 Park Avenue.

Miss Fannie Davis has returned to Richmond, after a visit to Miss Sallie DeLave in Ashland.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Godshy, whose marriage was a recent event, have been spending several days with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Robertson, in Chase City.

Mrs. L. G. Walker, of Danville, is the guest of relatives in this city for a annual banquet.

Rum Over By Auto.

Reuben Shapiro, a newsboy, aged thirteen years, was run over by an automobile in Sycamore Street, opposite Courthouse Avenue, last night. As he was running across a street and the auto coming up behind, he was struck by the auto and one of his ankles was run over and broken.

A young girl yesterday fell into a cellar door in North Sycamore Street and was somewhat injured, though not seriously.

Woodmen Elect Officers.

At the regular meeting last night of Oakwood Camp, Woodmen of the World, officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: consul commander, J. W. Scherer; adviser lieutenant, R. S. Ramsey; banker, B. J. Jones; clerk, W. D. Northington; escort, J. E. Hardy; watchman, S. G. Hogwood; auditor for three years, W. E. Holloway; physicians, Drs. R. H. Jones, W. E. Harwood, J. M. Bank and C. T. Jones.

News Notes of Interest.

Petersburg Lodge, Loyal Order of Moose, opened its home last night to refugees from Hopewell, and accommodated a number of them, including women and children.

Officials of the Norfolk and Western Railway went down to Hopewell today to look after the company's property damaged by the fire, and to arrange for rebuilding.

Secretary Martin, of the Chamber of Commerce, is allowing the use of the chamber for the accommodation of the Hopewell refugees.

Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company offers to render any additional service that may be deemed necessary between Petersburg and Richmond. Captain Dorey and Captain Johnston of the United States Army, is spending a few days with friends here.

Miss Fanny M. Walcott, of "Watauga," near Hampton, is a delegate to the Suffrage Convention in Richmond.

Mr. and Mrs. Kilgour, of France, who have been visiting their brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Galloway, on the Seven Pines Road, have left for Surry County.

Walker-Walker.

BLACKSBURG, VA., December 10.—The Blacksburg Presbyterian Church was the scene of a beautiful wedding on Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock, between Miss Nell Lamon, daughter of Mrs. G. W. Walker and the Rev. Professor Walker, who was married to Charles Walker, Jr., of Danville. Mrs. Wirt Dunlap presided at the organ accompanied by Mrs. W. D. Saunders on the violin, and just before the ceremony J. B. Fogelman sang "Believe Me, If All Those Endearing Young Charms." During the entrance of the bridal party a quartette, Messrs. Denly, Fogelman, Pearsall and Cooley, sang the bridal chorus from "Lothenrin."

The ushers were Rufus Johnson, of "Argyll"; N. C. Donald, Wyrer, of Dublin; T. P. Campbell, Jr. and William M. Labrook of Blacksburg; best man of honor was Mrs. A. D. Evans, of Christiansburg; Miss Elizabeth Walker, of Roanoke, was her sister's maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Misses Julia Wyser, of Clifton Forge, and Anna M. Campbell, of Blacksburg. Lewis Walker, of Danville, brother of the groom, was the best man.

The bride entered the church with her brother, J. William Walker, of Dublin. Her two nieces, Elizabeth Johnson and Anna M. Evans, were the flower girls, and carried sweet petals along the aisle in advance of the bride. Rev. David Junkin Woods, pastor of the church, was the officiating minister, and was assisted by Rev. E. Lane of Christiansburg.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Walker left for a visit to several of the Northern cities, and will then go to Westbury, N. J., where Mr. Walker has a position with the Du Pont Company, a special train from Christiansburg bringing over a number of guests for the wedding, and many out-of-town relatives and friends of the young couple were here for the event.

Clements-Davis.

(Special to the Times-Dispatch.) HENDERSON, N. C., December 10.—A most beautiful marriage, witnessed by hundreds of spectators, was solemnized in the Church of the Holy Innocents on Wednesday night, Rev. L. W. Hughes officiating. The contracting parties were Miss Eleanor, the daughter of the late Owen Davis, and A. E. Clements, a young business man of Henderson. A reception was given after the ceremony at the bride's residence. Mr. and Mrs. Clements left to visit the Northern cities. On their return they will reside in Henderson.

Doctors of Dinwiddie Meet at Petersburg.

Officers for Ensuing Year Elected. Newsboy Run Over By Auto and Injured.

(Special to the Times-Dispatch.) PETERSBURG, VA., December 10.—At the annual meeting of the Dinwiddie County Medical Faculty, held last night in the Chamber of Commerce, after the transaction of routine business, officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: president, Dr. D. C. Mayes; vice-president, Dr. C. T. Jones; secretary, Dr. W. C. Powell; treasurer, Dr. A. F. Barry. At the January meeting the faculty will have their annual banquet.

Rum Over By Auto.

Reuben Shapiro, a newsboy, aged thirteen years, was run over by an automobile in Sycamore Street, opposite Courthouse Avenue, last night. As he was running across a street and the auto coming up behind, he was struck by the auto and one of his ankles was run over and broken.

A young girl yesterday fell into a cellar door in North Sycamore Street and was somewhat injured, though not seriously.

Woodmen Elect Officers.

At the regular meeting last night of Oakwood Camp, Woodmen of the World, officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: consul commander, J. W. Scherer; adviser lieutenant, R. S. Ramsey; banker, B. J. Jones; clerk, W. D. Northington; escort, J. E. Hardy; watchman, S. G. Hogwood; auditor for three years, W. E. Holloway; physicians, Drs. R. H. Jones, W. E. Harwood, J. M. Bank and C. T. Jones.

News Notes of Interest.

Petersburg Lodge, Loyal Order of Moose, opened its home last night to refugees from Hopewell, and accommodated a number of them, including women and children.

Officials of the Norfolk and Western Railway went down to Hopewell today to look after the company's property damaged by the fire, and to arrange for rebuilding.

Secretary Martin, of the Chamber of Commerce, is allowing the use of the chamber for the accommodation of the Hopewell refugees.

Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company offers to render any additional service that may be deemed necessary between Petersburg and Richmond. Captain Dorey and Captain Johnston of the United States Army, is spending a few days with friends here.

Miss Fanny M. Walcott, of "Watauga," near Hampton, is a delegate to the Suffrage Convention in Richmond.

Mr. and Mrs. Kilgour, of France, who have been visiting their brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Galloway, on the Seven Pines Road, have left for Surry County.

Walker-Walker.

BLACKSBURG, VA., December 10.—The Blacksburg Presbyterian Church was the scene of a beautiful wedding on Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock, between Miss Nell Lamon, daughter of Mrs. G. W. Walker and the Rev. Professor Walker, who was married to Charles Walker, Jr., of Danville. Mrs. Wirt Dunlap presided at the organ accompanied by Mrs. W. D. Saunders on the violin, and just before the ceremony J. B. Fogelman sang "Believe Me, If All Those Endearing Young Charms." During the entrance of the bridal party a quartette, Messrs. Denly, Fogelman, Pearsall and Cooley, sang the bridal chorus from "Lothenrin."

The ushers were Rufus Johnson, of "Argyll"; N. C. Donald, Wyrer, of Dublin; T. P. Campbell, Jr. and William M. Labrook of Blacksburg; best man of honor was Mrs. A. D. Evans, of Christiansburg; Miss Elizabeth Walker, of Roanoke, was her sister's maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Misses Julia Wyser, of Clifton Forge, and Anna M. Campbell, of Blacksburg. Lewis Walker, of Danville, brother of the groom, was the best man.

The bride entered the church with her brother, J. William Walker, of Dublin. Her two nieces, Elizabeth Johnson and Anna M. Evans, were the flower girls, and carried sweet petals along the aisle in advance of the bride. Rev. David Junkin Woods, pastor of the church, was the officiating minister, and was assisted by Rev. E. Lane of Christiansburg.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Walker left for a visit to several of the Northern cities, and will then go to Westbury, N. J., where Mr. Walker has a position with the DuPont Company, a special train from Christiansburg bringing over a number of guests for the wedding, and many out-of-town relatives and friends of the young couple were here for the event.

Clements-Davis.

(Special to the Times-Dispatch.) HENDERSON, N. C., December 10.—At the annual meeting of the Dinwiddie County Medical Faculty, held last night in the Chamber of Commerce, after the transaction of routine business, officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: president, Dr. D. C. Mayes; vice-president, Dr. C. T. Jones; secretary, Dr. W. C. Powell; treasurer, Dr. A. F. Barry. At the January meeting the faculty will have their annual banquet.

Rum Over By Auto.

Reuben Shapiro, a newsboy, aged thirteen years, was run over by an automobile in Sycamore Street, opposite Courthouse Avenue, last night. As he was running across a street and the auto coming up behind, he was struck by the auto and one of his ankles was run over and broken.

A young girl yesterday fell into a cellar door in North Sycamore Street and was somewhat injured, though not seriously.

Woodmen Elect Officers.

At the regular meeting last night of Oakwood Camp, Woodmen of the World, officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: consul commander, J. W. Scherer; adviser lieutenant, R. S. Ramsey; banker, B. J. Jones; clerk, W. D. Northington; escort, J. E. Hardy; watchman, S. G. Hogwood; auditor for three years, W. E. Holloway; physicians, Drs. R. H. Jones, W. E. Harwood, J. M. Bank and C. T. Jones.

News Notes of Interest.

Petersburg Lodge, Loyal Order of Moose, opened its home last night to refugees from Hopewell, and accommodated a number of them, including women and children.

Officials of the Norfolk and Western Railway went down to Hopewell today to look after the company's property damaged by the fire, and to arrange for rebuilding.

Secretary Martin, of the Chamber of Commerce, is allowing the use of the chamber for the accommodation of the Hopewell refugees.

Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company offers to render any additional service that may be deemed necessary between Petersburg and Richmond. Captain Dorey and Captain Johnston of the United States Army, is spending a few days with friends here.

Miss Fanny M. Walcott, of "Watauga," near Hampton, is a delegate to the Suffrage Convention in Richmond.

Mr. and Mrs. Kilgour, of France, who have been visiting their brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Galloway, on the Seven Pines Road, have left for Surry County.

Walker-Walker.

BLACKSBURG, VA., December 10.—The Blacksburg Presbyterian Church was the scene of a beautiful wedding on Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock, between Miss Nell Lamon, daughter of Mrs. G. W. Walker and the Rev. Professor Walker, who was married to Charles Walker, Jr., of Danville. Mrs. Wirt Dunlap presided at the organ accompanied by Mrs. W. D. Saunders on the violin, and just before the ceremony J. B. Fogelman sang "Believe Me, If All Those Endearing Young Charms." During the entrance of the bridal party a quartette, Messrs. Denly, Fogelman, Pearsall and Cooley, sang the bridal chorus from "Lothenrin."

The ushers were Rufus Johnson, of "Argyll"; N. C. Donald, Wyrer, of Dublin; T. P. Campbell, Jr. and William M. Labrook of Blacksburg; best man of honor was Mrs. A. D. Evans, of Christiansburg; Miss Elizabeth Walker, of Roanoke, was her sister's maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Misses Julia Wyser, of Clifton Forge, and Anna M. Campbell, of Blacksburg. Lewis Walker, of Danville, brother of the groom, was the best man.

The bride entered the church with her brother, J. William Walker, of Dublin. Her two nieces, Elizabeth Johnson and Anna M. Evans, were the flower girls, and carried sweet petals along the aisle in advance of the bride. Rev. David Junkin Woods, pastor of the church, was the officiating minister, and was assisted by Rev. E. Lane of Christiansburg.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Walker left for a visit to several of the Northern cities, and will then go to Westbury, N. J., where Mr. Walker has a position with the DuPont Company, a special train from Christiansburg bringing over a number